Learn to do business with the Corps of Engineers Small business fair scheduled August 12 in Baton Rouge

NEW ORLEANS – Learn how to do business as a small company with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and its contractors at an event August 12 in Baton Rouge.

U.S. Rep. Richard H. Baker, whose office is funding the event, and the New Orleans District are sponsoring the Corps of Engineers Acquisition Fair.

The fair will be held Tuesday, Aug. 12, at the Pennington Conference Center, 6400 Perkins Road, Baton Rouge. Sign-in begins at 7:30 a.m. The program will be 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Topics will include subcontracting opportunities; the Comite River Diversion Project at Baton Rouge, which is just beginning to offer contract opportunities, and the Department of Homeland Security. One session will feature a panel of Corps contracting officers. Government agencies and prime contractors will have exhibits.

The fair is free. For information call 225-578-4842.

Pre-registration is required. Find the form here:
